FEATURED PROGRAMS

- Michele LaRue of The East Lynne Company, Inc., will perform "Someone Must Wash the Dishes," pro suffragist Marie Jenny Howe's satiric "Anti-Suffrage Monologue," published in 1913. This presentation is offered through the Horizons Speakers Bureau of the New Jersey Council for the Humanities, a state partner of the National Endowment for Humanities, and is free and open to the pubic.
- Vaughn is a singer and musician who specializes in the folklore and history of South Jersey and the Pinelands. Vaughn will perform a song that she composed about Alice Paul.
- Reading by authors Lynn Wenzel and Carol J. Binkowski, highlighting the accomplishments of Alice Paul. Their remarkable work delves into the insurmountable spirit of New Jersey's most famous unruly women. Books will be available for purchase, with a book signing to follow.
- ≝ Juveiling of Alice Paul Centennial Foundation's new name and logo

A reception and tours of Paulsdale will follow the program.

Please RSVP by Wednesday to (856) 231-1885, August 20th (See registration form on reverse)
